

Ancestors of Thomas de Keth Dicson

Generation No. 1

- 1. Sir Thomas de Keth Dicson, born 1247 in Hazelside, Scotland; died 19 Mar 1306/07. He was the son of
- 2. Richard de Keth.

Notes for Sir Thomas de Keth Dicson:
Thomas Dicson is the original Dixon!

St. Bride's Church Douglas, Lanark Hesleyside. Co.Lanark Created Baron of Symondston by King Robert the Bruce 1301, granted charter from the king, killed Palm Sunday. Thomas Keith changed his name to Dickson as his charter was given him addressed as Tomi Filius Dick, father was Richard Keith or at that time de Keith.

Generation No. 2

- 2. Richard de Keth He was the son of 4. Sir Harvey de Keth and 5. Margaret Douglas.

Child of Richard de Keth is:

- 1 i. Sir Thomas de Keth Dicson, born 1247 in Hazelside, Scotland; died 19 Mar 1306/07.

Generation No. 3

4. Sir Harvey de Keth, died 1240. He was the son of 8. Sir Robert de Keth and 9. Elisabeth Frazier. He married 5. Margaret Douglas.

5. Margaret Douglas She was the daughter of 10. William Douglas.

Notes for Sir Harvey de Keth:

Sir Harvey de Keth fought for William the Lion in defeating Henry II of England.

Children of Harvey de Keth and Margaret Douglas are:

- 2 i. Sir Robert de Keth
- ii. Richard de Keth.

Generation No. 4

8. Sir Robert de Keth He was the son of 16. Sir William de Keth and 17. Elizabeth Seaton. He married 9. Elisabeth Frazier.

9. Elisabeth Frazier, born in Tweeddale, Scotland.

Notes for Sir Robert de Keth:

Sir Robert de Keth was with Gilchrist Earl of Angus in defeating Somerled Angus' rebellion against King Malcolm IV.

Child of Robert de Keth and Elisabeth Frazier is:

- 4 i. Sir Harvey de Keth, died 1240; married Margaret Douglas.

10. William Douglas

Child of William Douglas is:

- 5 i. Margaret Douglas, married Sir Harvey de Keth.

Generation No. 5

16. Sir William de Keth He was the son of 32. Sir Patrick de Keth and 33. Margaret Marr. He married 17. Elizabeth Seaton.

17. Elizabeth Seaton

Notes for Sir William de Keth:

Sir William Keith, in 1133, with Earls of March, Montieith and Angus, defeated the English at Allerton.

Child of William de Keth and Elizabeth Seaton is:

8 i. Sir Robert de Keth, married Elisabeth Frazier.

Generation No. 6

32. Sir Patrick de Keth He was the son of 64. Sir Robert de Keth III and 65. Elizabeth Cumming. He married 33. Margaret Marr.

33. Margaret Marr

Notes for Margaret Marr:

Margaret was the daughter of the Earl of Marr.

Child of Patrick de Keth and Margaret Marr is:

16 i. Sir William de Keth, married Elizabeth Seaton.

Generation No. 7

64. Sir Robert de Keth III He was the son of 128. Sir Robert de Keth II and 129. Elizabeth Strachan. He married 65. Elizabeth Cumming.

65. Elizabeth Cumming

Notes for Sir Robert de Keth III:

Sir Robert de Keth, III obtained land and honors from King Alexander I.

Child of Robert de Keth and Elizabeth Cumming is:

32 i. Sir Patrick de Keth, married Margaret Marr.

Generation No. 8

128. Sir Robert de Keth II He was the son of 256. Sir Robert I and 257. Margaret Frazier. He married 129. Elizabeth Strachan.

129. Elizabeth Strachan

Notes for Sir Robert de Keth II:

Sir Robert de Keth, II commanded part of the army at the battle of Culross, which the Scots lost, whereupon he went with Banquo and Macbeth and defeated the Norwegians in their camp.

Child of Robert de Keth and Elizabeth Strachan is:

64 i. Sir Robert de Keth III, married Elizabeth Cumming.

Generation No. 9

256. Sir Robert I, born in Tweedale. He married 257. Margaret Frazier.

257. Margaret Frazier, born in Tweedale. She was the daughter of 514. Simon Frazier.

Notes for Sir Robert I:

Sir Robert, said to be a leader of the Catti tribe of northern Scotland, is credited with killing Camus, leader of a Danish army of invasion. For this, Robert was given by the king a Barony of Keth (Keith) in East Lothian, the three red stripes which have ever since graced Keith arms, and other honors.

Child of Robert and Margaret Frazier is:

- 128 i. Sir Robert de Keth II, married Elizabeth Strachan.

Generation No. 10

514. Simon Frazier

Child of Simon Frazier is:

- 257 i. Margaret Frazier, born in Tweeddale; married Sir Robert I.